“All the evils of the world are due to lukewarm Catholics.”

—Pope Saint Pius V

"Progress" of dogmas is, in reality, nothing but corruption of dogmas ... I absolutely reject the heretical doctrine of the evolution of dogma, as passing from one meaning to another, and different from the sense in which the Church originally held it.

Pope St. Pius X

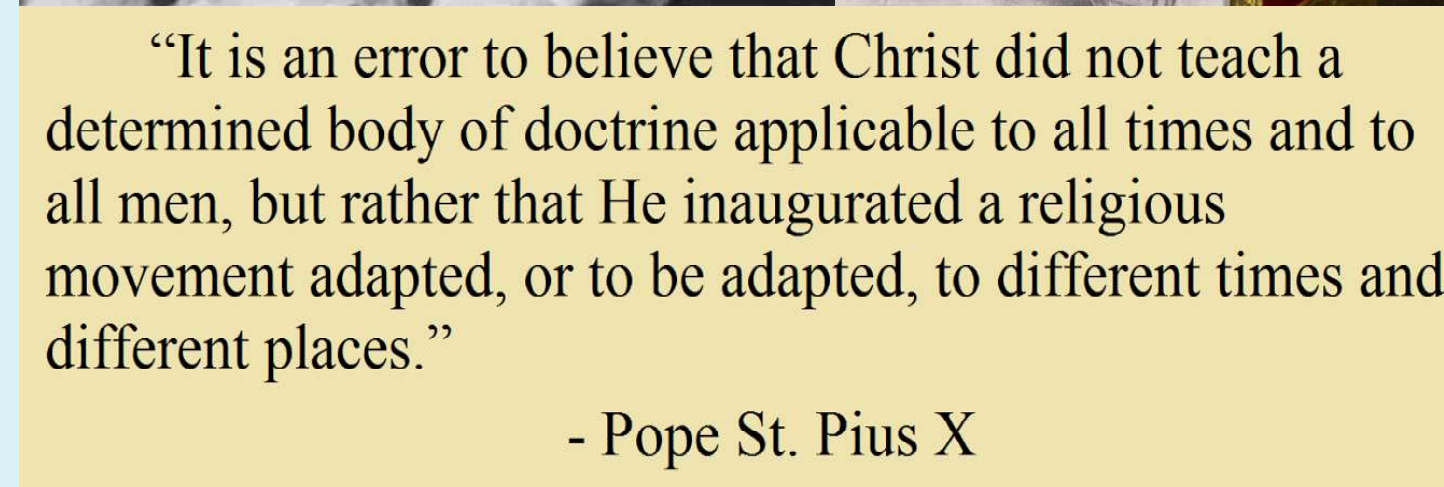

“ . . . the union of Christians can only be promoted by promoting the return to the one true Church of Christ of those who are separated from it.”

~ Pope Pius XI

On April 30, 1922 Pope Pius XI said;

“You know that I am the Holy Father, the representative of God on the earth, the Vicar of Christ, which means I am God on the earth.”

“It is an error to believe that Christ did not teach a determined body of doctrine applicable to all times and to all men, but rather that He inaugurated a religious movement adapted, or to be adapted, to different times and different places.”

- Pope St. Pius X

The use of the Latin language prevailing in a great part of the Church affords at once an imposing sign of unity and an effective safeguard against the corruptions of true doctrine.

--POPE PIUS XII,

MEDIATOR DEI, 1947, SEC. 60

What Do the Holy Fathers Say About Catholic Action?

Pope Gregory XVI - “This is indeed the time when the Christian army must unite in the face of the devil’s fury. But also it is the time to see to it that the faithful unite themselves in this holy association to the priests who are weeping, praying and laboring for the Faith...”

Pope Pius IX - (Vatican Council) “Fulfilling, therefore, the duty of Our supreme pastoral office, We beseech, through the Heart of Jesus Christ, all the faithful... and We order them in the Name of God our Savior, to employ their care and labors to remove and eliminate these errors from the Holy Church and to spread abroad the light of the most pure Faith.”

Pope Leo XIII - “It is no longer that Catholics have to stem the distant torrent of unbelievers. It is now a matter of protecting and developing the Faith in their own country... they have the power and duty to have recourse to spiritual weapons...”

“...It should be borne earnestly in mind that in propagating Christian truth, and warding off errors, the zeal of the laity should, as far as possible, be brought actively into play.”

Pope St. Pius X - “Catholic Action. . . by proposing to restore all things in Christ, becomes a real apostolate for the honor and glory of Christ Himself.”

Pope Benedict XV - “It is not enough for clergy and laymen who are friends of Catholic Action to go to the masses and organize them into groups. They must also imbue them deeply with the truths of the Catholic Faith, so that everyone knows his rights and duties and lives accordingly.”

Pope Pius XI - “Catholic Action consists not merely in the pursuit of personal holiness, which is, however, before all others, its first and greatest end, but it also consists of a true apostolate in which Catholics of every social class participate, coming thus to be united in thought and action. . .”

“All those who participate in Catholic Action and help in the development can do so only by prayer, work, and self-dedication. It is clear that they have no other intention or purpose—and a more noble one cannot be imagined—than to prepare souls to receive the Lord and to extend more each day the kingdom of God, or in a word, to restore all things in Christ.”

“The purpose of Catholic Action is therefore very noble, since it is the same as that of the Church, according to the principle: The peace of Christ in the reign of Christ; Pax Christi in regno Christi.”

“Catholic Action is not something new – it was Jesus Christ Himself Who laid the first foundation of Catholic Action, by choosing and educating the Apostles and disciples and fellow workers in His divine apostolate...”

Pope Pius XII - “To you, dear sons and daughters of Catholic Action, who have made it your motto to do and to suffer hard things as Christians and as Romans, to you, Our fatherly affection, Our thanks, and Our praise.”

“Thus prepared, trained, and united, the members of Catholic Action will press forward as apostles into every field of society in all directions, wherever there are souls to conquer for Christ, wherever there is a center or meeting-ground of individual or collective life, over which Christ Our Lord must reign.”

“Yet, when the Son of man comes, will He find, think you, faith on the earth?” (Luke 18:6)

What part are you playing in the vast field of Catholic Action?

on the Necessity of Catechetical Instruction on Sunday for Children Attending Non-Catholic Schools

Many adult Catholics believe that all they need to do is study the catechism to know their Faith. No! Pope Pius XI exhorted all Catholics to read and study the encyclicals! They are simply loving letters from their Spiritual Father, the Pope Himself, teaching them how to live their Catholic Faith.

"The Church teaches infallibly when it defines, through the Pope alone, as the teacher of all Christians, or through the Pope and the bishops, a doctrine of faith or morals to be held by all the faithful.

a. The Holy Father must intend to use his supreme, apostolic authority when he teaches infallibly.

b. The Pope can teach without speaking infallibly; for example, he does this in his encyclical letters. Catholics must accept such teachings, not on faith, but in obedience to the authority of the Pope and in respect for his wisdom."
